

Families, a blessing from God

God has put us in families because we need the closeness and love of others. He didn't plan for us to grow up on our own, like some animals must do, but has given us parents to care for us. God sets the lonely in families (see Psalm 68:6) so that no one should be on their own. We should thank God for each other every day and help each other.

