

God is our Strong Tower

Instead of building a tower to reach heaven, people should run into the tower of God. There we find love, acceptance and safety. The names of God are written on the tower.

